

UPDATE FROM SHERMAN AND KAY CRITSER COTE D'IVOIRE

June 14, 2007

Dear Living Links,

We have come to the end of our stateside tour, which began mid-March 2007 and finished up mid-June. We were made enlightened to the state of the Church of God. Wherever we shared, however, we were warmly welcomed, supported in every way and sent off with blessings from the congregations. Thank you for your prayer support for our travels. Out of all of it there was one fraction of a possible accident.

If you remember from our February newsletter, we informed you of Kay having repair surgery. It went well and she is ready to get back to work. As soon as the North American Convention is over, we will fly out of Indianapolis via Paris, France Charles de Gaul airport, and onto Côte d'Ivoire, landing July 1. Larry Sellers will meet us at the airport with our double-cab pickup. They will then leave us July 12 for their one year stateside assignment.

We have a praise to report—when we came home we were made aware that our support pledged was only at 94%. At present we are 98% supported with hope that we will make the 100%+ before September 2007. To God be the glory for his intervention in your hearts, who stepped up to the call for help. Should any one else feel impressed to give us that extra boost, please contact Candy Power at (800) 848-2464, ext. 2129 or CPower@chog.org.

Prayer requests:

- Our safe travels this year. Sherman will travel to Kenya by air late July.
- The visit of Rev. Nasser and Marilyn Farag and ministry at the West Africa Bible Institute in Côte d'Ivoire, West Africa, September 2007.
- The visit and work of Rev. Wanda Kay Watts in Côte d'Ivoire in October 2007.
- For wisdom and strength in carrying the extra responsibilities that goes with our job this year.

We praise God for all of you who are generous towards us and the ministry in Africa in which we are involved. Many are giving thanks to God for such generosity. Our theme this 2007 tour was taken from 2 Cor. 9:6-13. May it be yours also.

Together in Christ Jesus,
Sherman and Kay Critser
L L Project # 42.10045